Heartland Family Service, a non-profit, non-sectarian social work agency founded in 1875, provides essential human services to our area's most vulnerable children and families. For more than 130 years we have helped children who are removed from unsafe homes; teens who made the wrong decisions about alcohol, drugs or crime; low-income families—mostly women and children—who fall into homelessness; and many, many more who need a helping hand to get back on track. Every year we serve 35-40,000 individuals of all ages, from sixteen locations throughout east central Nebraska and southwest Iowa. Our experienced staff and collaborative approach allow us to provide efficient, outcome-based services that strengthen our community. As a member agency of United Way of the Midlands, many programs are offered on a sliding fee scale.
