

Jefferson House

The Heartland Family Service Jefferson House provides emergency shelter care and group home services for children in the city of Fremont and surrounding communities. The children benefit from community-based services that allow them to attend their home school and continue to be near familiar people and surroundings. Our well-trained, professional staff offers a therapeutic program to help children get through their traumatic experiences.

About Heartland Family Service

Since 1875, Heartland Family Service has responded to the needs of our area's most vulnerable children and families. Each year, the agency's 50 programs serve more than 52,000 individuals from more than 15 locations in east central Nebraska and southwest Iowa. We provide critical human services to the individuals and families who ultimately shape of our community in the following areas: Child & Family, Counseling & Prevention, and Housing & Financial Stability.
